Xact Check Reaches 100,000 Screenings Managing Director Emily Kieffer Announces Employment Screening Milestone

WASHINGTON, DC—December 15, 2009 – Xact Check Managing Director Emily Kieffer today announced that the company has surpassed 100,000 customized employment screenings for its domestic and international clients.

Ms. Kieffer applauded the employment screening breakthrough, noting, "Today's milestone is a critical step in moving Xact Check onto a path toward reaching its 2010 projection of 250,000 employment screenings worldwide. We will continue to support our clients through the current economic recovery and build on Xact Check's many achievements over the past years."

The Managing Director offered her thanks to the clients and host countries for their confidence in Xact Check, adding, "I would like to record my appreciation for all the government and corporate human resources teams we support. I also wish to acknowledge the efforts of the many Xact Check security officers around the world in this cooperative effort."

"Despite difficult post-recession circumstances, Xact Check has established an encouraging agenda for the continued growth of its online international employment screening and background check services. This will assist Xact Check to build upon the initial economic recovery and maintain the strong growth needed to expand its pre-employment screening worldwide. These new business developments uphold our commitment to Xact Check's global non-profit partnerships," Ms. Kieffer said.
